

New Live Webcast Shiur

by Rabbi Dr. Tzvi Hersh Weinreb

Join Rabbi Weinreb
Live Online!

Starts Thursday,
February 24th
at 12:30pm (EST)!

Tefillah and the Siddur Ha-tefillah Prayer and the PrayerBook

What Do We Say and Why Do We Say It?

Join Rabbi Dr. Tzvi Hersh Weinreb's new weekly video shiur (Torah class) on prayer at 12:30 pm (EST) every Thursday on www.ou.org. Each shiur will last approximately 30 minutes.

Using a wide range of classic and contemporary sources, Rabbi Weinreb will discuss the meaning of individual prayers, as well as the whole idea of what prayer is all about. He'll explain the structure of the siddur, how our emotions come into play, and how we can learn to appreciate the beauty of the words themselves.

To follow the shiur, it would be a good idea to have a siddur in your hand, preferably one with a linear translation. Other texts will be available in pdf format online.

If you're in the neighborhood, you can attend in person at OU Headquarters, 11 Broadway (14th floor) in Manhattan. Just email wolke@ou.org in advance to register, and bring photo ID.

*Need help logging on? Email webstaff@ou.org.
Shiur will be archived on www.ou.org for viewing any time.*

www.ou.org Doing More ONLINE for You and Your Community