Highlights of the Yachad “Oscars” Ceremony

Two hundred and fifty friends and supporters of Yachad attended the first-time ever presentation of the Yachad Oscars last winter at the American Airlines Theatre in Manhattan.

Yachad, the flagship program of the Orthodox Union's National Jewish Council for Disabilities (NJCD), provides unique social, educational and recreational programs for individuals with developmental, learning and physical disabilities.

“The show was a hit!” says NJCD National Chairman Steven Spira. “So many people came together to acknowledge the dedication of several outstanding supporters as well as to celebrate Yachad’s ongoing achievements on behalf of people with disabilities.”

Everyone in attendance received a “Playbill,” listing the distinguished “Who’s Who” in the cast, along with personalized “advertisements” in honor of the evening’s Oscar winners. Guests were entertained by acclaimed klezmer musician Andy Statman and juggler Cindy Marvell.

To become part of the Yachad family and learn how you can help, please contact Elaine Grossman at 212-613-8350 or grossmane@ou.org.

1. Gail and Binyamin Rieder (pictured here with their son, Jordan) received the Young Leadership Oscar.
2. Esther and Jackie Schlanger, shown here with their family, including Tamar (middle), a Yachad member, were awarded the Family Leadership Oscar.
3. Dr. Jeffrey Lichtman, national director of Yachad/NJCD, presented the Summer Program Oscar to long-time Yachad supporter Eileen Prensky, after Jenny Kellman (right), a Yachad member, announced the award.
