The Forgotten

Told that their children never existed, a man and woman soon discover that there's a much bigger enemy at work.

No Charge

Shulchan Aruch Orech Chayim sec. 580 lists dates on the Jewish Calendar that various tragic events occurred and one can take upon himself to fast on such dates. The last date on the list is the 9th of Adar, when the first (?) dispute between Beit Shammai and Beit Hillel took place. Although the Mishna praises both "Houses" for the integrity of their disputes and the exemplary behavior vis a vis each other, it is still considered a tragedy of Jewish History that Machloket exists. We're not recommending fasting; just pondering.
