NESTO
News

in Short

Avi Jacobs and Talya Honig Reporting

The B'chukotai Shabbaton was a big success! The Senior and SeniorPlus NESTOers began this uplifting Shabbat at the Kotel. They danced and sang Carlebach nigunim during Kabbalat Shabbat. They also walked back through the Rova arm in arm singing aloud. Oneg Shabbat was also a hit! All the NESTOers sang zmirot and shared personal stories with each other. Shabbat morning some of the NESTOers woke up early to daven Vatikin. What a spiritual Shabbat! On behalf of NESTO, we would like to thank all the chazanim, madrichim, and chanichim who helped make this Shabbat so great.

Last Thursday, SeniorPlus chanichim were found strolling around the Holy City of Jerusalem asking random people questions about its history and present. The purpose of this pe'ula was to find new incites about Jerusalem. "It was interesting learning from someone I had never met before how Jerusalem was liberated by the Israeli soldiers", said one of the Chanichim.

On Sunday the Center had its annual dinner. Two lucky NESTOers, Binny Yeres and Daniel Green were invited to represent NESTO.

This past Tuesday, Senior NESTOers continued their discussion about growing up. They watch "Tuck Everlasting" about a family who lived forever. Father Tuck said, "What we Tucks have, you can't call living. We just are, like rocks, stuck at the side of a stream."

Thanks to madrichim David Raber from Holland and Robert Pearl from England for the great times we had with you! See you soon. Keep in touch! Welcome new Senior Alina Halpert.
