GREAT SYNAGOGUE & TAX MUSEUM TOUR

Walk with us to places in the "backyard" of the Israel Center

We will be guided by Rabbi George Finkelstein, the Director General of THE JERUSALEM GREAT SYNAGOGUE, which is really a great synagogue - also known throughout the world for its beautiful edifice, with attractive, colorful and meaningful stained glass windows.

We will hear explanations in the main lobby about the unusual Mezuzah Collection, which is on exhibit. This will be a most meaningful and inspiring tour.

We shall then stroll down Agron Street to the Taxation Museum, where its curator will "Show and Tell" us about the function of taxes in the ancient world, as well as in the Jewish Communities of the Diaspora. We will hear and understand how much energy and ingenuity were invested in trying to smuggle "all sorts of things" into Israel. There's even "more to it...." [importing of contraband can be a great "knack"----come and see the unusual items which were caught and confiscated.]
