Professor Morrie Schwartz is dying. But rather than feel sorry for himself, Morrie continues to teach. But this time it is his most important lecture. "When we learn to die, we learn to live."

This is the movie made from the mega-best selling book wherein Morrie instructs his former college pupil about life. He passes on to him - and to all of us - lessons about how to get the most out of the days we have, how to live with our families and others, and much more. Jack Lemmon in the title role is his always brilliant self. A very special film. (90 minutes)

An Overview of the Laws of Ritual Purity by Catriel

For most people, the laws of purity and impurity ordained in Vayikra and Bamidbar, elucidated in the Mishna and codified by the Rambam are a total mystery... Can these seemingly arcane Torah laws be made comprehensible...? Communicating his knowledge in a highly effective way, Catriel Sugarman, noted lecturer on Mikdash-related subjects, has done virtually the impossible; he has brought an extremely complex and potentially boring subject to life! In a lavishly illustrated hour-and-a-quarter PowerPoint lecture replete with diagrams and pictures, Catriel walks the viewer through the intricacies of these complicated Halachot... Catriel concludes his presentation by suggesting a fascinating rationale as to why these Chukim were ordained.

Thursday, May 18th, 8:00pm

Available for speaking engagements, Catriel may be reached at acatriel@netvision.net.il
