In Memoriam: Dr. Joseph Lerner z"l

Dr. Joseph Lerner z"l, who passed away last month at the age of 84, served as a top official in the American gov't, and, after his Aliya in 1986, co-founded IMRA: Independent Media Review and Analysis [www.imra.org.il], which presents a fresh perspective on the news and events.

Joe knew how to work with the media, with governments, and with less than receptive Jewish organizations.

David Bedein, Joe's friend, will make a presentation in memory of Dr. Lerner, z"l and will describe some of what he learned from working and learning from this amazing man over the past twenty years.

UPCOMING AT THE ISRAEL CENTER

Save a Life: Save a World Monday, June 12 • 8pm

Six months ago, just before Chanuka, Martin Filla, a young Australian, saved my life. Martin donated his kidney to me. We found each other on the web. Martin will be a member of my family forever.

The public is invited to hear our story and learn everything you ever wanted to know about Organ Donations from experts.

Prof. Etyan Mor, Director of the Department of Transplantation, Rabin Medical Center, Beilinson Campus, will discuss "The Innovations in Transplantation and the Donor Situation in Israel"; Robert Berman, founder and director of HODS, the Halachic Organ Donor Society, will address "The Halachic Implications of Organ Donations"; and Judith Nusbaum, a recent kidney recipient and ADI volunteer, will explain how a donor can be found via the web.

The need for organ donations in Israel is critical. Of more than 800 people on the National Transplantation List, 90 will die this year while waiting for a compatible organ donation. Sadly, only 4% of the Israeli public have opted to sign the ADI organ donor card. As the Talmud says, whoever saves one life, it is as if he has saved an entire world. If more people committed themselves to becoming an organ donor, many lives, many worlds, would be saved.
