Save a Life: Save a World Monday, June 12 • 8pm

Six months ago, just before Chanuka, Martin Filla, a young Australian, saved my life. Martin donated his kidney to me. We found each other on the web. Martin will be a member of my family forever.

The public is invited to hear our story and learn everything you ever wanted to know about Organ Donations from experts.

Prof. Etyan Mor, Director of the Department of Transplantation, Rabin Medical Center, Beilinson Campus, will discuss "The Innovations in Transplantation and the Donor Situation in Israel"; Robert Berman, founder and director of HODS, the Halachic Organ Donor Society, will address "The Halachic Implications of Organ Donations", and Judith Nusbaum, a recent kidney recipient and ADI volunteer, will explain how a donor can be found via the web.

The need for organ donations in Israel is critical. Of more than 800 people on the National Transplantation List, 90 will die this year while waiting for a compatible organ donation. Sadly, only 4% of the Israeli public have opted to sign the ADI organ donor card. As the Talmud says, whoever saves one life, it is as if he has saved an entire world. If more people committed themselves to becoming an organ donor, many lives, many worlds, would be saved.
