He will present his Int'l Emmy award-winning documentary, "The Last Seven Months of Anne Frank". Mr. Lindwer's parents were among the 10% of Dutch Jews who survived the Holocaust... Anne Frank's diary ended three days before her family was discovered in that famous Amsterdam attic... Her fate was a mystery for decades. In the 1990s, Mr. Lindwer set out to solve that mystery. This film tells what happened to Anne after the family was captured through the testimony of seven women who survived the hell from which Anne never returned... "The Last Seven Months of Anne Frank" is the powerful and unforgettable completion of the most famous individual story to have emerged from the Holocaust. The ICVC is very fortunate to have Mr. Lindwer present his film. In addition, he has agreed to discuss the movie and take questions after its screening...
