TUE October 17, 2:00pm- “Crossfire” This was the first Hollywood movie to examine anti-Semitism. It was released the same year, 1947, as the other excellent film to address the issue, “Gentleman’s Agreement”. In the movie, an anti-Semitic soldier meets a Jewish businessman in a bar with violent results. Brilliant performances by three “Robert’s”- Ryan, Mitchum, and Young - make this powerful portrayal of the evil of Jew hatred memorable. This is not only an excellent film, but an important one. (1½ hours)

TUE October 31, 7:00pm- “Follow Me” This is the internationally acclaimed documentary about Israel’s miraculous 1967 victory. Using rarely seen frontline footage, this film tells the story of how Israel defeated the much larger armies of Egypt, Syria, Iraq, and Jordan in six days. “Follow me!” was the motto of Israeli commanders who led their troops into battle. The movie covers the tense weeks preceding the outbreak of the war, the actual fighting on the three fronts, the fierce battle for Jerusalem and the emotional liberation of the Kotel. This is a moving and very special film. (1½ hours)

Wed. Oct. 25th -3 Heshvan - 8:00pm - Capt. Zvi Webb while fighting as a soldier in the Vietnam War began serving his true Commander in Chief. He wrote a fascinating true story - a book about his spiritual return to Judaism, "The Loyal Soldier". Join us in hearing his story.
