NOTE NEW DATE: Tuesday, December 26, 7:00pm

"Gentleman's Agreement" - A film classic, considered by many critics and viewers to be one of the best movies ever made. Gregory Peck as a Christian journalist wishing to report on anti-Semitism. He assumes the identity of a Jew in order to experience the prejudice and hatred firsthand. He is shocked and horrified by what he discovers. Nominated for 8 Academy Awards, winner of three including Best Picture of 1947. A simply marvelous - and important - film. (2 hours)
