

Shabbat, April 24 - 25

Rabbi Michael Davies

Founding Rabbi, Congregation Dor Tikvah
Charleston, South Carolina

Rabbi Davies now serving the Charleston Jewish community, spent 5 years as the Associate Rabbi of the Beth Jacob Congregation in Oakland, California.

A young and dynamic community Rabbi who is well-known for his beautiful voice, will inspire us and offer us a slice of southern charm, warmth and inspiration.

His experience living across the American Jewish community promises to offer us a new perspective on Jewish life.

Schedule:

Friday Night Kabbalat Shabbat led by Rabbi Davies - 7:00pm

Shabbat Morning

Rabbi Davies will lead a special musical Tefillah for the State of Israel in the Main Shul at 10:45am and will speak at the Young Professionals Minyan at 11:15am

Seudah Shlishit:

A conversation between Rabbi Shaffer and Rabbi Davies on Jewish Communal life outside of New York
